PRIVACY NOTICE

We ask that you read this privacy notice carefully as it contains important information on who we are, how and why we collect, store, use and share personal information, your rights in relation to your personal information and on how to contact us and other organisations in the event you have a complaint. Please see the section on 'Your Rights' for more information.

Introduction

We are North London Homecare and Support Ltd. In order that we can provide care and support services to the people we support we collect and use certain personal information about you.

Personal information means any information about you from which you can be identified, but it does not include information where your identity has been removed (anonymous data).

As the 'controller' of personal information, we are responsible for how that data is managed. The UK General Data Protection Regulation 2021, which applies in the United Kingdom, sets out our obligations to you and your rights in respect of how we manage your personal information.

As the 'controller' of your personal information, we will ensure that the personal information we hold about you is:

1. used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
2. collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
3. relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
4. accurate and kept up to date.
5. kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
6. kept securely.

If you have any questions about this privacy notice or would like further explanation as to how your personal information is managed, please send an email to info@nlhs.co.uk, write to Unit 44, 26-28 Queensway, Ponders End. Enfield. Middx. EN3 4SA or call 0208 443 3380.

Please note when we refer to:

- A "public body" we mean any organisation in the United Kingdom which delivers, commissions or reviews a public service and includes (but is not limited to) the Ombudsman, Care Quality Commission, local authorities, councils, unitary authorities, clinical commissioning groups, health and social care trusts, the National Health Service as well as their arm's length bodies and regulators.
- A "social or health care professional" we mean any person who provides direct services, acts as consultant or is involved in the commission of your healthcare or social care services, including (but not limited to) your General Practitioner (GP), dental staff, pharmacists, nurses and health visitors, clinical psychologists, dieticians, physiotherapists, occupational therapists, hospital staff, social workers and other care and support related professionals.

The personal information we collect and use in relation to people who enquire about and use our services

Information Collected By Us

When you enquire about our care and support services and during the course of providing care and support services to you, we collect the following personal information when you provide it to us:

- your name, home address, date of birth and contact details (including your telephone number, email address), emergency contacts (i.e., name, relationship and home and mobile numbers) and payment record. We also collect this information if you agree to guarantee or fund the fees of one of our clients
- your allergies and any medical, physical or mental conditions and in particular your care needs
- your likes, dislikes and lifestyle preferences (including your religious beliefs or other beliefs of a similar nature, racial or ethnic origin, health and sex, so far as they relate to providing you with suitable care.
- credit or direct debit details (if you pay for some or all of our services using one of these methods)

Information Collected From Other Sources

We also obtain personal information from other sources such as:

- your allergies and any medical, physical or mental conditions and in particular your care and support needs, from any appropriate external social or health care professionals (including your GP)
- your name, home address, date of birth, contact details, needs assessments and outcomes of financial assessments from any appropriate external social or health care professionals (including any relevant public body regardless of whether you are publicly funded)
- your likes, dislikes and lifestyle preferences (including your religious beliefs or other beliefs of a similar nature, racial or ethnic origin, health and sex,) so far as they relate to providing you with suitable care, from your family, friends and any other person you have nominated as your representative
- your Attorney or Deputy (if applicable)

How We Use Your Personal Information

We use your personal information to:

- credit check you
- prepare, review and update a suitable care plan, describing the nature and level of care and support services which you have requested we supply to you
- to communicate with you, your representatives and any appropriate external social or health care professionals about your individual needs and personalise the service delivered to you
- make reasonable adjustments, when required, to meet your individual needs and to ensure we have suitable facilities to ensure your safety
- invoice you for the care and support services in accordance with our terms and conditions
- carry out quality assurance procedures, review our service and improve our customer experience (please note that feedback can also be provided anonymously).

Who We Share Your Personal Information With

We regularly share your medical information with appropriate external social or health care professionals (including your GP and pharmacist) and any individuals you have nominated as your representative. This data sharing enables us to establish the type of care and support you need. It also allows us to design the right care package to suit your individual circumstances, including if (in future) you decide to receive care from an alternative provider.

We will share your personal information with credit reference agencies to check your suitability to pay or guarantee our fees.

We will share personal information with law enforcement or other authorities if required by law. This includes information required by public bodies to evidence our compliance with the applicable regulatory framework. We are also required to share personal information with external social or health care professionals, including public bodies and local safeguarding groups (in some circumstances) to ensure your safety.

We will not share, sell or trade your personal information with any other third party.

Whether Information Has To Be Provided By You, And If So Why

The provision of your medical, physical or mental condition is necessary to enable us to create a care plan and to provide you with suitable care and support services. Without this information, we will not be able to assess your care needs or provide any care services to you.

Where you are funding or guaranteeing payment of our services, if you don't provide details of your name, address and payment record for credit checking purposes we will be unable to enter into a contract to provide our services.

The provision of your name, home address is required so that we can arrange a care worker to attend your home to deliver the services and so that we can invoice you for the fees.

We will inform you at the point of collecting information from you, whether you are required to provide the information to us.

How Long Your Personal Information Will Be Kept

- we will hold the personal information kept within your client file for 30 years.
- we will hold the personal information kept within our feedback procedure for one year so that we can identify trends and patterns in our service

The Personal Information We Hold

Under data protection laws, we need to have a legal reason or basis to use your personal information. Our reasons as to why we can collect and use your personal information are as follows.

We rely on the following grounds within the UK GDPR:

- Article 6(1)(b) – the processing is necessary for the performance of our contract to provide individuals with care and support services or for the entry into that contract; and
- Article 6(1)(c) – the processing is necessary for us to demonstrate compliance with our regulatory framework and the law.

In addition, we need to have a further legal reason to process your special category personal information (for example your health information and lifestyle preferences).

We rely on the following ground within the UK GDPR:

- Article 9(2)(h) – processing is necessary for the provision of social care or the management of social care systems and services

Your Rights

Under the UK GDPR you have a number of important rights free of charge. In summary, those include rights to:

- fair processing of information and transparency over how we use your personal information;
- access to your personal information and to certain other supplementary information that this Privacy Notice is already designed to address;
- require us to correct any mistakes in your information which we hold;
- require the erasure (i.e., deletion) of personal information concerning you, in certain situations. Please note that if you ask us to delete any of your personal information which we believe is necessary for us to comply with our contractual or legal obligations, we may no longer be able to provide care and support services to you;
- receive the personal information concerning you which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to a third party in certain situations;
- object at any time to processing of personal information concerning you for direct marketing;
- object to decisions being taken by automated means which produce legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affect you;
- object in certain other situations to our continued processing of your personal information;
- otherwise restrict our processing of your personal information in certain circumstances;
- claim compensation for damages caused by our breach of any data protection laws;

For further information on each of those rights, including the circumstances in which they apply, see the Guidance from the UK Information Commissioner's Office \(ICO\) on individuals' rights under the General Data Protection Regulation

How To Contact Us

If you would like to exercise any of those rights, please:

- email, call or write to Catherine McBride, Managing Director. Unit 44, 26-28 Queensway, Ponders End. Enfield. EN3 4SA.
- let us have enough information to identify you (e.g., your name and address),
- let us have proof of your identity and address (a copy of your driving licence or passport and a recent utility or credit card bill), and
- let us know the information to which your request relates, including any account or reference numbers, if you have them.

Keeping Your Personal Information Secure

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost, or used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to know it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

How To Complain

We hope that we can resolve any query or concern you raise about our use of your information.

The UK GDPR also gives you right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. The supervisory authority in the UK is the Information Commissioner who may be contacted at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/> or telephone: 0303 123 1113.

Changes To This Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice was published on 20th May 2018 and last updated on 16th January 2024.

We may change this privacy notice from time to time, when we do, we will inform you by letter or email.
